New 4-Year Study: Clear & Compelling Gains for Classroom, Inc. Students

Just In: New Study on Summer Learning Success

A major new study shows that summer students enrolled in Classroom, Inc.'s program not only avoided typical summer learning loss, they actually made significant gains in reading and math. On average, students gained three months in reading and seven months in math after just four to five weeks of using Classroom, Inc. View the report here.

On the Move

In the past few weeks Classroom, Inc. has been on the move! We had a great time presenting our virtual internships at the request of the Gates Foundation in Seattle, attending the Education Trust 2011 Conference in Washington, DC, and traveling to San Francisco for the New Vision for Summer School Meeting.
