

QUICKWRITE ORGANIZER: EPISODE 8, "A STAR IS BORN"

SUMMARIZE A PRESENTATION

When people summarize a presentation, text, or an event they have witnessed, they are reporting on the most important points of what they've read or seen.

Reread Sofia's presentation. Then, write what you believe to be the most important point she made in each category below. You will later include that point in your summary.

COMMUNICATING WITH AN INTERVIEWER

HAVING THE RIGHT CHARACTER TRAITS

USING GOOD BODY LANGUAGE

PREDICTING INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

Read all the points you wrote in the categories above. Write one sentence that summarizes those points. You may later decide to use this sentence as the conclusion of your summary—your final statement about what it takes to be a good spokesperson.

You are ready to write a list or a paragraph summarizing Sofia's presentation. Whichever form of summary you choose, include the points you wrote down on the first page. They need to be in your words—not Sofia's!

You can either go back to the game to write, or write your summary in the space below, then copy and paste it into the box in the game.

WRITING PROMPT

Write a summary of Sofia's presentation. Use either one of Super Ed's tips to organize your summary. Before you hit "Send," be sure you've:

- written either one paragraph or a list made up of one point for each of the headings in the presentation
- included only the most important points
- except for the presentation headings, use only your own words

MY SUMMARY